

Rowan & Vale Cyclery — Brand Knowledge Base

Everything true about this business, written down so it can be cited.

Fictional. Prepared as a test document for SparkSocial — every name, number and address below is invented.

What we are

An independent bicycle workshop in Bristol. We service and restore road, gravel and touring bikes, build wheels by hand, and run a free Saturday clinic for riders who want to maintain their own machine.

Opened March 2019, by Imre Vale and Josephine Rowan. Staff 4 — three mechanics, one wheelbuilder. Workshop 7 Aldergate Yard, open Tue–Sat 8am–6pm, closed Sundays and Mondays.

The facts a post might need to cite

CLAIM	THE ACTUAL NUMBER	LAST CHECKED
Bikes serviced per week	38	Sept 2026
Wheels built by hand, to date	1,140	Sept 2026
Wheelbuild turnaround	5 working days	ongoing
Standard service turnaround	48 hours	ongoing
Saturday clinic attendance	12 riders per session, free	Sept 2026
Oldest restoration completed	A 1953 Hobbs of Barbican	March 2024
Spoke supplier	Vellum Works, Sheffield	since 2019

Do not round 38 up to "dozens" or 1,140 up to "thousands". If a number is out of date, say the month it was true.

How we talk

Plain, specific, unhurried. We explain what we did and why it mattered. We are mechanics, not salespeople — a post should leave a rider better informed even if they never book.

We write in the first person plural: "we trued the wheel", not "the wheel was trued".

Things we do not say

- Never call our work "artisan" or "bespoke". We are a workshop.
 - Never describe a repair as "like new" — a restored bike is a restored bike.
 - Never claim we are the "best" or "number one" shop in Bristol.
 - Never promise a same-day turnaround. Standard service is 48 hours.
 - Never imply a bike is "fully safe" after a service. We check and report; we do not guarantee.
 - Do not use "game-changing", "revolutionary" or "unleash".

Proof we can show

- The workshop itself — benches, truing stands, the wall of wheels.
- Work in progress — a frame stripped, a wheel half-laced, a worn cassette beside its replacement.
- Finished results — before and after of a restoration.
- The products we stock and fit.
